SEMESTER IV

Students are required to take:

1. ONE Interdisciplinary/Cross Disciplinary Course (I/C Course).
 2. ONE Skill Enhancement Course.
 3. PROJECT BASED COURSE
- Dissertation in Politics: Note that MA (Honours) Politics Students are required to do 2 Project based courses.
 - MA Politics students will however do only 1 Project based course.
 - Credits: 10 + 10 (Two Dissertations for MA (Hons) Politics).

Process of Project Based Course:

The project based course will be in the form of a dissertation based on a live project or a research assignment related to the specific discipline of the Politics.

Every Teacher from the Department of Civics & Politics will announce four to six broad topics at the beginning of the second semester, reflecting degree of relevance and rigor suitable to a post graduate programme, along with an indicative reading list. These will be screened by the Board of Studies in the subject and a final list of approved topics along with a reading list will be displayed in the first week of the third semester.

The student will submit a list of his/her three most preferred topics in the order of preference by the fifth week of the third semester to the Head of the parent department.

The Departments will constitute a project committee consisting of the Head of the Department (Chairperson) and three other teachers from the department. The purpose of this committee is to oversee the functioning of the project component in the department.

All post graduate teachers in the Department will be guides for the project component. Each teacher will have a specified minimum number of students

In case, a particular topic is preferred by more students, the project committee will allocate students to guides within the department in order of the average of marks obtained in semesters 1 and 2.

If it is felt necessary, the project committee can assign a co-guide to a student, depending upon specific disciplinary needs.

The student will make a preliminary presentation in or before the seventh week of the fourth semester. The presentation will be attended by the guide/s and a committee consisting of three other teachers appointed by the Head of the Department. The committee will make necessary suggestions to improve the dissertation.

The student will make a final presentation in the 10th to the 12th week of semester four. The presentation will be evaluated by the same committee that evaluated the preliminary presentation. The criteria for evaluation will be as follows:

- i) 10 marks for the quality of presentation
- ii) 15 marks for answers to questions

The marks given by the three members of the evaluation committee will be averaged in each head and the total marks decided by totaling the averages under the three heads.

Dissertation Submission

The student will submit a bound hard copy of the dissertation to the Department by the end of the fourth semester, along with a soft copy on a CD/DVD.

The final dissertation will have a word limit of 5000-8000 words and will be typed in one and a half spacing on one side of the paper. The APA style shall be followed for the writing of dissertation.

The final dissertation will be evaluated out of 75 marks by the guide.

The Dissertation Format:

1. Title Page
2. Abstract
3. Introduction (Contains justification, objectives and Methodology)
4. Chapters
5. Concluding Remarks
6. Bibliography
7. Appendices (if any)

Evaluation:

Total Marks: 100

25 Marks: Presentation to Project Committee. The marks have two components: i) 10 marks for the quality of presentation ii) 15 marks for answers to questions

75 Marks: Evaluation by Project Guide.

(Note: M.A. (Hons) Programme students are required to do one additional project based course.)
